Commission issued to William Stevenson of Kent County appointed a Naval Officer of the Eighth District in said County.

A Petition from Elizabeth Hope of Montgomery County; was laid before the Board, setting forth that she had bought Chinkens of a Negro without knowing she was acting contrary to Law, it being a constant practice with all Banks to buy of a Negro without a Note from their Masters - and that the same Negro being some time after brought before Mr. Deale a Magistrate in said County on a charge of having stolen a Bull, she gave information of his having sold Chinkens to her
