

In Council August 21st 1788.

Thomas Ross, having by his Petition set forth that he was fined six hundred pounds of Tobacco last Terminal Court for Baltimore County, for selling a pint of spirits contrary to Law, it appears from a Certificate given by the Clerk of the County that he was fined at June Term last, and from the recommendation of three of the Justices of the said Court that the Petitioner was prevented for his wife's selling the rum, that he is an honest good man and no complaint made against him. The Board in confirmation thereof do direct a remission of the said fine of six hundred pounds of Tobacco, which is hereby done

In Council August 21st 1788

Sarah Gosnold or Gosling by her Petition sets forth that she was fined by Baltimore County Court for selling liquor without licence to the amount of five pounds which with the costs amounts to about nine pounds, which she is unable to pay, that she is a Widow whose late Husband died in the service of America during the late war, and left her with a family to support. It appears from transcripts from the Clerk of the County that she was fined last June Term six hundred pounds of Tobacco and thirty shillings currency, and from the recommendation of four of the Justices of the said Court, that the Petitioner is unable to pay the said fines and costs, and a number of the Inhabitants of the said County having signed the Petition. The Board in consideration of the low Circumstances of the Petitioner do direct a remission of six hundred pounds of Tobacco, one of the said fines, which is hereby done
