In Council October 14th 1788.

Matthew Hart of Baltimore town, by his Petition sets forth that at the last June term he was fined on two several Presentments in the sum of six pennas current Money each, for selling spiritous liquors by the small, without License That the quantity sold each time was half a pint, and that it was sold by one of his family who did not know but that the retailing that Quantity was permitted by the License he had taken. The Petitioner represents that the payment of these fines will not only take his little stock of Liquors but probably the feeding of his family, and hopes in consideration of his poverty and of the involuntariness of the offence, to be relieved from them; and the Petition being accompanied by a Recommendation from three of the Justices of the Court aforesaid and likewise by a certificate of the Petitioners poverty signed by a number of Inhabitants of Baltimore. The Board on full consideration of the circumstances do order that the aforesaid fines be and they are hereby remitted
