

May term following appeared, and it was ordered that on each, he should recognize in the sum of thirty pounds for his appearance at the then next Court to answer the same, which Recognizances were respited from term to term till January seventeen hundred and eighty eight, when the said Daniel Curtis was called upon and did not appear, upon which, the said Recognizances were forfeited - The said Daniel Curtis by his Petition alleges that he attended the Court upwards of two years, during which, he was never called upon but once when he informed the Attorney General that he was ready for trial, that afterwards he removed from town and not being able to attend when his Recognizances were called, they became forfeited and Executions have issued against him for the recovery thereof, which, if he should be compelled to pay, must reduce a large family to ruin - And five of the Justices of the Criminal Court having recommended him as an object of compassion, the Board in consideration of his indigent circumstances and inability to pay the forfeiture aforesaid, do order and direct that of the two forfeited Recognizances abovementioned amounting to sixty pounds, fifty seven pounds be, and the same is hereby remitted.
