In Council May 29th 1789.

William Aday of Harford County, by his Petition to the Board sets forth that he became security for a certain Samuel Corbit in a Recognizance of forty pounds to indemnify the County from the charge of maintaining a bastard child of the said Corbit's - That the Child has since become a charge upon the County to the amount of eight pounds, ten shillings and that thereupon the Petitioner's Recognizance became forfeited, and he was committed therefor, and prays a remission of the forfeiture upon his reimbursing the County the sum expended for the maintenance of the said Child and remaining liable for any future charge - And whereas it appears from a Certificate from under the hands and seals of John Love, Thomas Bond and William Smith three of the Justices of Harford County that the said William Aday did on the fifth Day of this instant make full satisfaction for the expences the County was at to the date of the Certificate for the allowances made Martha Anderson for the support of the said Child and did also on the same Day enter into Recognizance to save harmless the County from the maintenance of the said Child, and also from a Certificate from under the hand of Samuel Groome Osborn that the said William Aday had paid him the sum of eight pounds being the allowance granted by the County to the said Martha Anderson - The Board in consideration of the Petitioner's having reimbursed the County the money expended for the maintenance of the aforesaid Child, and having entered into a Recognizance to save harmless the County in future from the maintenance of the said Child, do direct that the said forfeiture of forty pounds be remitted.
