In Council June 29th 1789.

Whereas John Manning of St. Marys County was on a presentment in the County Court for said County, held in June seventeen hundred and eighty eight, fined six pounds current money of Maryland for retaining spiritous liquors without Licence. And the said John Manning by his Petition to the Board represents that he purchased in the winter seventeen hundred and eighty eight not exceeding one hoghead of Spanish Brandy with an intention to carry the same, in the spring following, to the Fishery and exchange it for Fish - that finding
