In Council October 17th 1789.

Valentine Murrain, and James Howard of Saint

Marys Comty by their Petitions to the Board set forth that Valentine Murrain has been confined in the Goal of the said Comty ten Months, and that James Howard has been confined in the said Goal nine Months, for fines of eighteen pounds, each imposed on them by the Court, for selling spiritous liquors without licence - that from their inability to pay the said fines they must remain in Prison, unless the Comercy of Government is extended to them, that they have each a wife and three small Children who are now suffering by their Confinement, and that they committed the offence through ignorance and not design - they therefore pray a remission of the said fines - And four of the Justices of the said Comty having certified their belief of the facts stated in their positions - The Board in consideration thereof do hereby order and direct the said fines of Eighteen pounds imposed on each of the said
