In Council October 23^d 1789.

William King of Baltimore County by his Petition to the Board, sets forth that he became bound in a Recognizance of fifty pounds for the appearance of Elizabeth King who was prosecuted for receiving a Bee hive knowing it to be stolen - that the said Elizabeth King has since absconded and thereby deprived the said William King of the power of procuring her appearance, whereupon the said Recognizance hath been forfeited in Baltimore County Court at September term 1786, as appears by a transcript accompanying the said Petition - and of the Justice, together with several Inhabitants of the said County
