In Council October 22nd 1790

John Burgeys of Montgomery County by his Petition sets forth, that between November Court 1789 and March Court 1790 he was accused of retailing spiritous liquors, and being informed that a Magistrate in the recess of the Court had a power to grant a permit to sell, applied to the worshipful Mr Holmes a Justice of said County for a permit - that on his application Mr Holmes granted him a permit to retail till March term 1790, and at the same time informed him that he must apply to the next Court and pay up for the time elapsing between his permit and the setting of the Court in proportion for the time he had sold under the permit, that he applied to the Court and obtained a license to retail and paid up for the time he had retailed under the permit - notwithstanding he was presented at the March Court aforesaid, and found the sum of six pounds - The Board having considered the said Petition and being of opinion that no violation of the law was intended as a
