In Council February 18. 1791

John Miller of Baltimore County by his Petition sets forth that he came to this State in the Spring of the year 1790 and had a licence granted him by Baltimore County Court at April Term to keep tavern - that he was unacquainted with the Laws of the State, and did not renew his licence at September Court last - in consequence of such neglect he was presented at November Term and fined by the Justices of Baltimore County Court of Oyer and Terminer and Goal delivery, the quantity of six hundred pounds of Tobacco and thirty Shillings current Money as appears from a transcript of the proceeding of the said Court and it appearing to the Board from the Recommendation of three of the Justices of the said Court that the facts stated in said Petition are true do therefore order and direct that the said fine of six hundred pounds of Tobacco and thirty shillings current Money be remitted on his paying all costs arising on said presentment.
