

that time required that persons should apply at the June Courts for such licence or if they should apply at any other term their licence should continue not longer than the June Court following when the same should determine and might be removed. and that the said Henry Gleyland Baker alleges that he thought his licence would continue to the October term 1790, and omitted to renew the same at the June Court following the October that he obtained it, and in consequence of this neglect the said Henry Gleyland Baker was presented at October Court 1790, and was fined the sum of six pounds. and the said Court having in consequence of the indigent circumstances of the said Henry Gleyland Baker recommended the remission of the said fine. We do there fore order and direct that the said fine be remitted upon the said Baker's paying the costs thereon accruing.

In Council April 4. 1792

Whereas it appears by the representation of the Chief Justice of the 2^d District, and the two Associates of Kent Comty that William Pope of the said Comty was fined by the said Court at March term last, the quantity of two thousand pounds of Tobacco for keeping a Primary without licence. that the said William Pope had kept an Primary for several years previous to the usual
