

Ordered that the western shore Treasurer, pay to Benjamin Sawood agreeably to the "Act to adjust the Debts due from this State" Eleven pounds eighteen shillings per account passed by the Auditor the 4th instant - and five pounds eighteen shillings, and nine pence half penny per account passed by the Auditor this Day.

Informed December 6th 1792

The Petition of Margaret Swick and Mary McVea was laid before the Board setting forth that they were severally indicted at the last Baltimore County Criminal Court for selling Cyder, and suffering the same to be drunk about their House without licence for that purpose, and thereupon fined - that their offences were committed in consequence of their believing that the Law did not extend to liquors made or manufactured in this County - and that their extreme indigence disabled them from paying the said fines - And where as Samuel Chase, George Salmon, Lyde Goodwin and George Goldsmith Presbury Esquires, Justices of the Criminal Court have recommended the Petitioners to the Clemency of the Executive on account of their poverty - The Board in consideration of the very indigent Circumstances of the said Petitioners do order and direct that their (respective)
