

committed in one Evening when a number of his neighbours met accidentally at his house, and when he sold the Syder without knowing, as the Petitioners have reason to believe that he thereby offended against the Laws. They therefore pray that the fines may be remitted. The Board on Consideration of the said Representation do direct that the said fines, fifteen in number to the amount of fifty six pounds five shillings, be remitted upon the said Isaac Moore's paying all the Costs arising on the said Prosecutions —
