

peace - and the truth of the said facts having been certified by credible persons - and the said Jeseau being recommended by the Chief Justice and two of the Associate Justices of the said Court for relief it is thereupon ordered that the said fine of six pounds be remitted and the said Jeseau released therefrom, he first paying all the legal costs of the said Prosecution

Thos. Lee
James Bruce

H. Ridgely

John Davidson

In Council February 9th 1793

It appearing by the Petition of Charles Cole of Baltimore County, that he was convicted of selling Liquors without licence and fined by the Justices of Baltimore County Court of Oyer and terminer, the quantity of six hundred pounds of Tobacco, and it further appearing to the Board on the Petition aforesaid that the Father of the said Petitioner obtained a licence at August term last as Ordinary keeper but since which, and before the commission of the said offence the Father of the said Petitioner departed this life and that the said Petitioner sold the said liquors under an idea that it was lawful for him so to do under the licence to his father, and the said Petitioner (being)