

The charges made by Charles Daffin against George Martin Surveyor of Caroline County, the parties and their witnesses attended - when it was moved and prayed by the Complainant's Counsel, that he be permitted to amend his representation by adding the following instance of his misbehaviour not known to him when he made the other charges against the said Surveyor - "The Representation further states that the Surveyor of Caroline County has conducted himself with gross ignorance or corrupt intention in the execution of his duty as Surveyor, on a Survey of Lands made between Jones and Stuelles" -

Whereupon it was Resolved that on condition of his paying the expence of all the persons attending as witnesses, to be taxed by the Clerk of the Court, Mr. Daffin have leave to amend his Complaint in manner aforesaid, and that the first Monday in June next be assigned for a hearing of testimony on the Complaint and Representation as so amended.

Summonses issued to James Summers, Thomas Boone, Charles Emory, Henry C Hartindale, Thomas Hughlett, Benjamin Sylvester, Henry Stuels 3 and Thomas Hicks of Caroline County, and Nathan Harrington of Dorchester County, severally to be and appear before the Governor and Council on the first Monday in June next, to testify on behalf

J