By the Petition of Michael folleflower of Washington County it appears that he was presented at December Term 1799 in nineteen Presentments for selling liquors contrary to law. The Petitioner states that he is an illiterate German not versed in the laws of the State, and having before the sale of the Liquors for which he was presented and fined as aforesaid, obtained from George Scott Esquire Collector of the Revenue a licence to distill and forth, and not being able to discriminate between the quantities which by law he was entitled to sell. He states that he is a poor man. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the
