

and Edward Hall.

By the Petition of Robert Swales of Montgomery County it appears that he entered into a Recognizance in the sum of five pounds for the appearance of Barton Vincent at the Court of the said County at March Term 1798 to answer to an assault committed on Warren Magruder. The Petitioner states that before the sitting of the said Court the said Vincent removed to Kentucky. The Court on consideration and from the recommendation of the Court of the said County do remit the above forfeiture.
