

The Board viewed the Return of the Auction for Sheriffs of Somerset County deposing Robert Leatherbury and Tubman Lewis as duly elected: Whereupon Commission was given to Robert Leatherbury as Sheriff of the said County.

By the Petition of John Lecher of Washington County it appears that he was presented at the Court of the said County for keeping an equality Table and was fined the sum of fifty pounds. The Petitioner states that he is a poor man with a family to support and is incapable of discharging the said fine: that he did not know that it was illegal to keep such a Table. The Board on consideration and from the recommendation of the Court of the said County do remit the said fine.
