

By the Petition of Bayham Armstrong of Worcester County accompanied by a Transcript from the Proceedings of the Court of the said County it appears that he was fined six pounds current Money for selling one quart of Cyder without licence. The Petitioner states that from his extreme poverty he is totally unable to pay the same and is now confined in the Jail of the said County for want of security for the fine and fees. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the Court of the said County do remit the said fine of six pounds current Money of Maryland.
