

sum of six hundred pounds of Tobacco and one pound ten Shillings Current Money for selling spirituous liquors without licence. The Petitioner states that her late Husband William Goddard had a licence to keep an ordinary or Public Inn and that previous to expiration of said licence he died. That being ignorant of the law she continued to sell liquor under said licence. The Petitioner states that she is extremely poor and a widow with six children and is altogether unable to discharge said fine. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the Court of the said County do remit the said fine.

By the Petition of David Olden of Baltimore County accompanied by a Transcript from the Proceedings of the Court of the said County it appears that he entered into a Recognizance on the thirtieth day of June last before Owen Dooey for his personal appearance before the Court of said County on the second Monday in July then next, to give testimony against a certain Charles. H. Tunis for assaulting and beating the Petitioner.
The Petitioner states that he did attend Court pursuant to the Recognizance several different times, but that in his absence the said Recognizance was forfeited. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the Court of the said County do remit the said Recognizance of ten Pounds.
