By the Petition of Abner Boon late Sheriff of Prince Georges County accompanied by a Transcript from the Proceedings of the Court of the said County it appears that at September Term eighteen hundred and three a judgment was found against a certain Alexander Harvey for selling liquors without license - that a writ issued against the said Harvey returnable to April Term eighteen hundred and four - that at September Term eighteen hundred and five an announcement for six pounds was finally closed against the Petitioner for not producing the said Harvey - The Petitioner states that he was unable to do so, as the said Harvey, during the sitting of the Court at April Term eighteen hundred and five was committed to jail upon a charge of Horse stealing, and that during the sitting of the said Court he broke jail and made his escape. The Petitioner further states that he made every exertion to retake the said Harvey but without effect. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the Court of the said County do remit the said forfeiture.

By the Petition of Ann Gunwell of Prince Georges County accompanied by a Transcript from the Proceedings of the Court of the said County it appears that she was presented at September Term last in six several instances for selling spirituous liquors without license and was fined the sum of six pounds in each case amounting in the whole to the sum of thirty six pounds. The Petitioner states that her late husband Justice Gunwell did for many years before his death keep an ordinary in Prince Georges County and regularly obtained a license for that purpose. That since the death of her husband she has found it necessary to continue the same line of business in order to support herself and family. That in the Fall of the Year eighteen hundred and five she contracted with a Mr. Hartline for the use of his House at the Big Spring in Washington County, where she intended to remove in a few Weeks. That owing to that circumstance she omitted to take out a license at September Court eighteen hundred and five. which would have cost the Petitioner six pounds five shillings and which in case of her removing (as she fully expected) would have been of no service to her in Washington County and which could not have been transferred to any other person. The Petitioner further states that contrary to her expectation Mr. Hartline
