By The Petition of Elijah Goodrich of Charles County it appears that he was fined by Charles County Court at March Term last in five several Cases the sum of six pounds Current Money each for selling spirituous liquors contrary to law. The Petitioner states that the whole of his property is not sufficient to pay the fines and costs that accrued on the trials and that of course he cannot give security for the payment thereof. That he has a Wife and three small Children whose support entirely depends on his labour, and that his confinement in Jail will reduce them to extreme want and beggary. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the Court of the said County do remit the whole of the said fines.
