

By the Petition of Joseph Maguider of Anne Arundel County accompanied by a Transcript from the Proceedings of the Court of the said County it appears that he was fined by the said Court at September Term last the Sum of twenty Dollars for an offence. The Petitioner states that he hath had the misfortune of having both his Arms broke, which renders him incapable of labour. That he is poor - has a Wife and five small Children to support and without the means of providing for them. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of a number of respectable persons inhabitants of the said County do remit the whole of the said fine.
