

certain Raafin Cornb now deceased whom in his lifetime and immediately preceding his death lived at the River Monocacy on the public Road leading from Frederick Town to the City of Baltimore at which place the said Raafin Cornb kept a Tavern and Ferry for which he had obtained regular licenses according to law and the time for which they were granted had not expired at the time of his death. That the Petitioner being ignorant of the law and supposing that the licenses obtained by her late husband authorized her to keep the said Tavern and ferry she continued to accept the same after the death of her said husband. The Petitioner states that she is very poor and unable to pay the said fines. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the Court of the said County do remit the whole of the said fines.
