

The Court of Sessions at London is accompanied by a transcript from the Proceedings of the Court of Sessions at London for the Delivery for National Security of the said Court at London at January Term 1812. The said Court at London is a Court of Law and Equity a certain James M'Intosh the Defendant in the said Cause is accompanied by several Deponents that the said James M'Intosh has offered to the Plaintiff the greatest personal promise to the Plaintiff that the said M'Intosh threatened to take the life of the Plaintiff, and to cause the Plaintiff to be taken in the name of the Plaintiff between them the said James M'Intosh and the Plaintiff to fight, and to bring the Plaintiff to the Court of Sessions at London and to make use of the most abusive language. The Plaintiff in the said Cause is in the said circumstances with an expensive family and that the Plaintiff of the said Cause with the costs of Cause which amount to twenty three dollars more will fall very heavily on them. The Court in consideration of the said circumstances and from the recommendation of a number of respectable persons do remit fifty five dollars of the said Cause.

John Stephen
Clerk of the Court
Thomas W. Hall

The Court postponed the further consideration of Justice of the Peace and other officers of a usual appointment till Monday.

Saturday January the 4th 1812

The Court met Present His Excellency The Governor and the honorable John Stephen Thomas W. Hall and Beverly F. Wheeler.

The Court resumed the consideration of the appointment of Justice of the Peace and other officers directed by the Constitution and Laws to be appointed annually, not having come to a conclusion postponed the further consideration thereof till Monday.

Sunday January the 5th 1812

The Court met Present His Excellency The Governor and the honorable John Stephen Thomas W. Hall and Beverly F. Wheeler.

The Court resumed the consideration of the appointment of Justice of the Peace and other officers directed by the Constitution and Laws to be appointed annually, not having come to a conclusion postponed the further consideration thereof till Monday.