

Ordered that Mr Shaw direct J. S. Henry to furnish the State of Maryland with three hundred Rifles at sixteen Dollars per Rifle. The said Henry to furnish fifty Rifles per Month according to the terms by him proposed.

By the Petition of Griffith Davis of Montgomery County accompanied by a Transcript from the Proceedings of the Court of the said County it appears that he was fined by the said Court at March Term last the sum of ten Dollars for an assault on Benjamin Andrews. The Petitioner states that he was presented by a Constable for the alleged assault and not by the Person on whom the assault was committed; that he is old and poor and has a Large Family of Children to support. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the number of respectable persons Inhabitants of the said County do remit the said fine of ten Dollars
