By the Petition of Mary Jacobs of Dorchester County it appears that she was fined by the Court of the said County at October Term eighteen hundred and fifteen in nine cases the sum of six Pounds in each case for selling spirituous liquors without licence. The Petitioner states that she was ignorant of the laws of the State and considered herself only compelled to take out licence from the collector of the United States which she did pay the Tax for that she has kept a Public House for many years and that this is the only instance in which she has ever violated the laws of the State. The Board on consideration of the circumstances of the case and from the recommendation of the Court of the said County do remit the whole of the said fines
