

Alexander Downie was fined by the said Court at February term, eighteen hundred and thirteen the sum of ten Dollars for selling spirituous liquors without licence.

The Petitioner states that in consequence of the poverty of the said Downie and not being able to pay the said fine he was committed to jail and while there petitioned for and obtained the benefit of the Insolvent Law but could not be released from Prison until the fine was paid. That the wife of the said Downie an industrious woman with a large family of children to maintain solicited the Petitioner to release her husband from confinement that he might nurse her children and thus enable her to work out and earn them provisions and clothes the said Downie being diseased in the leg and not able to work. The Petitioner states that he paid the said fine and costs to the Sheriff. The Board on consideration of the circumstances of the case and from the recommendation of the said Court, do remit the said fine
