

By the Petition of James Raulugh and Nathan Rawlings of Dorchester County it appears that they were fined by the Court of the said County at March term eighteen hundred and seventeen ten Pounds Current Money each for selling Tickets in a Lottery proposed a certain Greenbury. L. Raulugh in violation of the law. The Petitioners state that they were ignorant of the existence of any law forbidding the proposing of a Lottery without an express law of the state and still less did they know it would be criminal to sell, or offer to sell tickets in such a Lottery and that they violated the law through ignorance and not design. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the Court of the said County do remit the said fines

By the Petition of Mary McCaldon of the City of Baltimore it appears that she was fined in four several cases by Baltimore City Court for selling spirituous liquors without licence. The Petitioner states that she was left a poor widow with three children to support and that she has by honest industry endeavoured to educate and bring them up. That the times being hard and every article of subsistence scarce and dear, she was advised by her friends to open a small grocery store to assist her in the maintenance of her family. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the said Court do remit the said fine
