

each case for selling spirituous liquors without licence. The Petitioners state that a certain George Dechebut lately deceased did in his life time obtain from the late Court of Oyer and Terminer and Grant delivery for Baltimore County a licence for the keeping of an ordinary and that Frederick Leyhold Administrator of The said Dechebut sold out to your Petitioners the whole establishment of the said Dechebut in the said City together with the Licence aforesaid. That being under the fullest impression and belief that the said licence was and could be transferable and transferred and that by virtue thereof they had a right to sell liquors did sell the same. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the court of the said County do remit the said fines
