By the Petition of Thomas Slight it appears that he entered into a Recognizance with Joseph Bestpitch his security for the appearance of the said Thomas Slight at Dorchester County Court at October term last to answer a Presentment for an assault and Battery committed on the body of a certain William Paul. The Petitioner states that he is a poor man with a large family and is wholly unable to pay the said forfeiture without great distress to himself and family. The Petitioner states that the said recognizance was forfeited without any wilful neglect on his part to appear. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the Court of the said County do release the said Thomas Slight and his security from the said Recognizance
