

Ralph Asale, Esquire, was appointed District Attorney for the first Judicial District, composed of Saint Marys, Charles and Prince Georges Counties, and commission issued to him accordingly.

Alexander Hanks, Esquire, was appointed District Attorney for the second Judicial District, composed of Cecil, Kent, Queen Annes and Talbot Counties, and commission issued to him accordingly.

Josiah Bailey, Esquire, was appointed District Attorney for the fourth Judicial District, composed of Caroline, Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester Counties, and commission issued to him accordingly.

Franklin Anderson, Esquire, was appointed District Attorney for the fifth Judicial District, composed of Frederick, Washington and Allegany Counties, and commission issued to him accordingly.

Samuel Livermore, Esquire, was appointed District Attorney for the sixth Judicial District, composed of Baltimore and Harford Counties, and commission issued to him accordingly.

Addison Aidou, Esquire, was appointed District Attorney for the third Judicial District, composed of Calvert, Anne Arundel and Montgomery Counties, and commission issued to him accordingly.

Richard Wisby, Richard Key, Heath and General James Lloyd, were appointed commissioners of lotteries and commission issued to them accordingly.

Nicholas Gower, was appointed a Justice of the Peace for Allegany County, and commission issued to John Reed, Jesse Tomlinson, John Shaw, Benjamin Tomlinson, John Rice, Thomas Cresap, William Hoge, Nicholas Durbin, John Holtzman, Isaac Osman, William Ashby, William Johnson, Henry White Senior, Nathaniel Bellagruder, Lenox Martin, John Burbridge, George Hinckle, John Scott, Charles Y Brodhaq, James Tubball, George Robinett, of Tatham, Thomas Crawford, Adam Siglar, Thomas Dawson, Thomas Wilson, Junior, Jonathan Arnold, William Ridgely, John Simpkins, Thorman Graze, Robert Newman, Emanuel Custer, William Thistle, Crispin Oglety, Joseph Cresap, George McCulloch,