By the Petition of John H Barnes and Noble Barnes accompanied by a transcript from the Proceedings of Charles County Court it appears that they entered into a Recognizance in the sum of fifty dollars each for the appearance of a certain Humphrey B Haislip at Charles County Court at March Term eighteen hundred and seventeen and good behaviour to Alexander Scott Junior which was respited to August Term eighteen hundred and seventeen and forfeited. The Petitioners state that the said Haislip did attend the Court for and during the said March Term at which nothing was done or had against him to the knowledge of the Petitioners, and that they were totally unacquainted with the Recognizance being respited, and also of the nature of such respite had they been informed of it. The Petitioners state that the said Alexander Scott Junr., has for some time past left Charles County and now as they understand resides in the District of Columbia, and that the said Humphrey B Haislip has also left the State in pursuit of means whereby they may obtain a livelihood. They further state that to pay the amount of the said forfeited Recognizance would be hard and oppressive on them, the said John H Barnes
