By the Petition of Samuel Scott and Thomas Sheriff accompanied by a transcript from the proceedings of Prince Georges County court it appears that they entered into a Recognizance in the sum of fifty dollars each for the appearance of Washington Wallis at the said Court at April Term eighteen hundred and seventeen to answer a presentment. The Petitioners state that the said Wallis did attend the court at the said Term but from accident or inattention no entry of his appearance was made on the Clerk's Dockett, and the Recognizance was forfeited. The Board on consideration of which circumstances and from the recommendation of the Court of the said county do release the said Samuel Scott and Thomas Sheriff from said forfeitures.
