

By a Representation of the Honorable Henry M Murray, District Attorney for the sixth Judicial District it appears that a certain Jeph Cullum was fined by Harford County Court at March Term 1820 for an assault and Battery. He states further that the said Cullum is wholly unable to pay the said fine and that he has a wife and seven small children dependant on him for support. That he is now confined in Harford County Jail where he must remain unless the fine is remitted. That the offence for which he was fined was of a trifling nature. The Board do on the recommendation of the said District Attorney remit the said fine.
