

made to this Department, by the Judges of the Election for the sixth Congressional District of this State, that General Philip Reed and Jeremiah Bosden, Esquire, had an equal number of votes as candidates to Congress for that District: The Governor and Council conformably to law proceeded to decide by lot between them, and the result was that Jeremiah Bosden, Esquire, was decided to be the representative for the said District to the Congress of the United States.

Given in Council, at the City of Annapolis, under the great Seal of the State of Maryland, this Eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

By His Excellency's Command

Ninian Pinkney
Clerk of the Council

Samuel Sprigg

Ordered, That the foregoing Proclamation be published once a week for the space of four weeks in the Maryland Republican at Annapolis, American and Patriot at Baltimore, The National Intelligencer, The Examiner at Frederick Town and The Star at Easton.

The State of Maryland to wit.

The Board being in possession of the returns from the several Counties of this State and the City of Baltimore, of the Election lately held for the choice of Representatives in the Congress of the United States, proceeded agreeably to the directions of the acts of Assembly, in such case made and provided, to enumerate and ascertain the number of votes given for each person voted for as aforesaid, when it appeared that Raphael Arale, Joseph Kent, Henry R. Warfield, John Nelson, Peter Little, Samuel Smith, Robert Wright, and Thomas Bayly, Esquires, had the greatest number of votes. And it appearing by the returns made to this Department by the Judges of the Election for the sixth Congressional District of this State, that General Philip Reed and Jeremiah Bosden, had an equal number of votes as candidates to Congress for that District. The Governor and Council conformably to law proceeded to decide by lot between them
