

person who occupied the premises where he now resides during the year eighteen hundred and nineteen had taken out a license at the May term of the County Court for one year, and that when the Petitioner took possession of the house he bought the license of the former Tenant, believing that he had a right to do so.

The Board on consideration of the circumstances of the case, do on the recommendation of the Court of the said County remit the said fine of ten dollars.

John Stephen

Thomas H. Wilkinson

Grafton Duvall.

By the Petition of David Howard accompanied by a Transcript from the Proceedings of Worcester County Court, it appears that he was fined by the said Court at November term last the sum of sixteen Dollars for selling spirituous liquors without license. The Petitioner states that he violated the law through ignorance and not design. That he and a certain George P. Johnson, who were in partnership in the Town of Salisbury in the said County, obtained a License. That the Petitioner resided in Baltimore. That the said George P. Johnson obtained a license from Worcester County Court to retail spirituous liquors by the said Town. That after that time there was a dissolution of the said Partnership. That after the said dissolution the Petitioner went on to sell under the said license granted to the said Town. Believing that he had a right to do so. The Court having recommended a remission of the said fine. The Board do order and direct that the said David Howard be released from the same.

John Stephen

Thomas H. Wilkinson

Grafton Duvall.

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay to Isaac Mumroe Editor of The Patriot eight dollars for printing as per account papered and filed.

By His Excellency Samuel Sprigg Governor of Maryland

A Proclamation

Whereas the Executive have received information that the Stables, The Fodder House and Oyle and Hay Stacks at the Waterloo Inn belonging to George Calvert, Esquire, of Prince Georges County, were consumed by fire in November last, and that some evil disposed person or persons are suspected to have set fire to the same. Now in order that the perpetrator or perpetrators of said crimes may be brought to punishment, and a repetition of similar outrages prevented. I have thought proper