My dear Sir

Council Chamber Annapolis Jan^y 12th 1821

At the September term, of Anne Arundel County Court, the honorable Jeremiah T. Chase, Chief Judge of the Third Judicial District of Maryland, succeeded on a suit brought by him against the State, for services performed by him in Chancery cases, where the Chancellor was originally employed or interested. There has been an Appeal ordered by this Department, and I am directed by the Executive to ask the aid of your professional services, in defending the interest of the State when the cause shall be ready for trial. - I am &c.

To the honorable William Pinkney.

William Pinkney.
