The State of Maryland, to all whom it may concern, Theophilus F. Dougherty Esquire, having produced to the Executive of this State, an Exequatur, signed by the President of the United States, and sealed with the Seal of the said States, recognizing him as Vice Consul of his Majesty the King of Sardinia, for the Port of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland; Ordered that the said recognition be published for the information and government of the people of this State. Given in Council, at the City of Annapolis, this twenty fifth day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty one.

James Monroe President of the United States of America

To all whom it may concern.

Satisfactory evidence having been exhibited to me that Theopilo Felice Dougherty, Esquire, is appointed Vice Consul of His Majesty the King of Sardinia, for the Port of Baltimore, in the State of Maryland: I do hereby recognize him as such, and declare him free to exercise such functions, powers and privileges, as are allowed to the Vice Consuls of the most friendly nations, between whom and the United States there is no particular agreement for the reliction of the Consular functions. In testimony whereof, I have caused these letters to be made patent, and the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the thirteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the forty fifth
