

replied that they had a line which would authorize the sale and one of them off to get it and after some returned with a writing purporting to give authority sell. but was so badly written, that it could not be easily read, and was so unperfect in other respects as not to comply with the requisites of the law on that subject. The Sammes called the next day, and the writing was given to him and the whole matter readily explained. that the said Sammes has relinquished his right to one half of the said fine. The Board do on the recommendation of the Court of the said County remit so much of the fine as the State is entitled to.

By the Petition of Charles P. Blake, accompanied by a Transcript from the Proceedings of the Court of Queen Annes County, it appears that he was fined by the said Court, at May term eighteen hundred and twenty, the sum of one hundred dollars, for an assault and battery on Turbutt Harris. The Petitioner states that he is poor, with a wife and two children to support. that the said Turbutt Harris has recovered of him a civil suit two hundred and fifty dollars - and a number of highly respectable people Inhabitants of said County, having recommended the said Charles P. Blake to the clemency of the Executive, it is ordered by the Executive that the said Charles Blake be released from eighty dollars of the said fine.
