 was born in some epidemic hundred and twenty one without a licence in 1800. The Collector states that at the request of Mr Hoy, he directed his of said sugar called for liquor not to let him have any, but that the said being aware of the absence of the Collector called at the Bar on a Sunday, and presented on the 20th day to let him have a drink of liquor; that the other sugar Stephen was on his employment at the time the liquor was furnished him. The Board do on the recommendation of the Board of the said County, remit the said fine of twenty three dollars and thirty three and a third cents

By the Petition of Elias Smith of Charles County it appears that he was appointed Supervisor of the Public Roads of Charles County in which capacity he acted for ten or twelve years successfully discharging the duties assigned him to the satisfaction of the citizens of the County, until the year eighteen hundred and nineteen when he was unfortunate in his health and was confined to his house almost the whole of the said year, which rendered him incapable of performing his duties the roads in consequence thereof became much out of repair, and he was presented by Grand Jury of the County to which presentment he appeared and entered a recognizance for his appearance at a subsequent Court, at which Court he appeared the next term, but being ignorant of the rules of the Court requested to have a recognizance added supposing his appearance sufficient to release him from
