

On the nomination of His Excellency the Governor Joseph Nicholson, Joseph G. Melton and Charles Baldwin were appointed Justices of the Peace for County and a new commission issued to James Sanders, Nicholas Worthington, of Linthicum, James Mackubin, Rezin Esler, Edward Warfield, Joseph G. Harrison, Doctor
 H. Snowden, Henry Hammond, of Broadneck, Henry Evans, Jacob Williams, Samuel Junior, Theodore M. Williams, Thomas Becknell, Thomas W. Turner, John Wood, of John,
 J. Simons, Samuel Hopkins, of Linthicum, Thomas Burgess, Henry Cord, Ellis Thomas,
 Senior, James P. Soper, Benjamin Franklin, William H. Hall, Francis Belmeas, Lewis
 Osborn W. Mulletkin, William Norman, Richard G. Hutton, William Mansott, of Thomas, Henry Duvall, John Sams, Moses Crone, John Johns, Edward Gaither, Doctor William Denney, Esq.
 Brown, of Samuel, John J. Dorsey, Nicholas Dorsey, of Lloyd, George Howard, of Bruce, Henry Whalen, Captain John Merriken, Henry E. Mayer, Francis Hancock, Stephen Boone, Richard H.
 Balle, William Weems, Richard G. Watkins, Captain Christopher L. Gamble, Doctor Stevens
 Gambrell, Gideon White, William P. Watkins, John Iglehart, Thomas Welch, Allen Warfield, Augustus Sappington, Robert Welch (Preacher), Howard Duvall, Richard H. Merriken, Henry Williams, Jacob Whitright, Joseph Norris, Benjamin Gaither, Cornelius Duvall, Doctor and G. Stockett, John Sullivan, Upton Welch, Lloyd Selby, Otho Welch, Nathan Shipley, W. Dorsey, Robert Franklin, John Hall, Richard Phelps, Theodore Anderson, John J. W.
 John Warfield, Charles D. W. Johnson, James Nutwell, Edward E. Anderson, John Sellman
 George Cook, Alfred Sellman, John Frost of James, William D. Merriken, Joseph
 Joseph Mayo, William G. Melton and Charles Baldwin as Justices of the Peace for Annapolis County.

On the nomination of His Excellency the Governor, Francis Lamb, John H.