

and eight screws for the use of the Uniform Company, commanded by the said Captain of packing, delivering and transporting the same, to be borne by the said Company.

Ordered, that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay to Leonard J. Fernald, the sum of sixty dollars, for a Horse killed in the month of August 1819, during the war was, while in the service of the State, the said Horse having been valued agreeably to law, as per account papered and filed.

Ordered, that the Armourer at Annapolis deliver to Captain William Mutchers, seventy five stands of uncleaned arms, the like number of Cartridge boxes and eight screws, for the use of the Uniform Company commanded by him. The expense of packing, delivering and transporting the same to be borne by the said William Mutchers.

Ordered, that the Armourer at Annapolis deliver to Captain John B.
Pierce, seventy five stands of uncleaned arms, the like number of Cartridge Boxes and eight screws for the use of the Uniform Company commanded by him. The expense of packing, delivering and transporting the same to be borne by the said John B. Pierce.

Ordered, that the Armourer at Easton deliver to John Donovan, Esq. commanding an Artillery Company, at Cambridge, attached to the 12th Brigade, two six pound field Pieces for the use of the said Company. The expense of transportion to be defrayed by the said Captain Donovan.

Ordered, that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay to Leonard J. Fernald, the sum of two hundred dollars for distributing the Law and Notes and other the Eastern Shore.

Ordered, that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay to Leonard J. Fernald, the