By the Petition of Hannah Parsons of Somerset County, it appears that she was fined by The Court of the said County, at May Term last for selling spirituous liquors without license. The Petitioner states that her Husband, (who died on the Month of March eighteen hundred and twenty one) had in his life time a Tavern licence, that she thought she was after his death privileged to sell during the said year under the said licence, and did not sell with any intention of violating the law. The Board do on consideration of which circumstances, and from the recommendation of the said Court remit the said fines.
