

a Trustee of the Alms House for Baltimore County, vice Colonel James Byas, deceased, and commission issued accordingly.

On the nomination of His Excellency the Governor, Colonel Henry Lewis, was appointed one of the Coroners of Washington County, and commission issued to him accordingly.

On the nomination of His Excellency the Governor, Elijah Brewster, was appointed one of the Coroners for Worcester County, vice William Round, resigned, and commission issued accordingly.

On the nomination of His Excellency the Governor, Roderick Dorsy, was appointed Inspector of Tobacco at Samuel R. Smith's Warehouse in Baltimore County, and commission issued to him accordingly.

On the nomination of His Excellency the Governor Stephen H. Moore was appointed a Justice of the Peace for Baltimore City, vice J. H. Rogers, deceased and a new commission issued to James Mosher, Ebenezer H. Cummings, John Moore, Thomas Phoenix, Owen Dorsy, Peter Galt, William G. Purviance, Henry Yearly, Anthony Whitely, Robert Gorsuch, William M. Medcalf, Thomas W. Griffith, James Frazier, John Ainsworth, John Robb, Thomas Bailey, Lyman Adams, Anthony Miltenberger, John F. Harris, William Clemon, Ferdinand Gouderon, David B. Ferguson, Marmaduke Tilden, Charles Wischester, James B. Lalmer, Thomas Sheppard, William H. Murray, Fielder Isaac, Nathaniel Knight, Samuel Tracy, Samuel Young, Simon Tomson, Nicholas Norris, Matham G. Bayson, Joseph B. Elliot and Stephen H. Moore as Justices of the Peace for the city of Baltimore