By the Petition of George Simmons accompanied by a Transcript from the Proceedings of Anne Arundel County Court, it appears that he was fined by the said Court at April term 1824 the sum of fifty dollars for selling dry goods without license. The Petitioner states that he violated the law through ignorance and not design having been informed that the Act of Assembly which requires a license had been repealed. The Board do on the recommendation of the Court of the said County remit so much of the said fine of fifty dollars as the State is entitled to
