

amount, he also states that Prather has been called on for the amount of the recognizance who refused to pay and procuring the certificate and receipt of Smith; that the circumstances of the case have been explained to the said Prather with solicitation that he would petition and state the foregoing facts; but that the said Prather declares his intention to suffer his property executed that he may have the pleasure of bringing suit against the officers. He therefore prays that the forfeiture of the said recognizance may be remitted, and the Court's Council Key one of the associate judges of the said Court having recommended that the prayer of the petition be complied with, the board do in consideration thereof and of the circumstances of the case hereby remit the said forfeiture.
