By the Petition of Littleton Fleming of Somerset County, accompanied by a transcript from the proceedings of the County Court of said County, it appears that he was fined by the said Court at Term the sum of sixteen dollars for selling spirituous liquors without Licence. The Petitioner represents, that during the year 1824 he rented a store house of a certain Jacob Henson in the said County, and purchased the unexpired time of a Licence to retail spirituous liquors in the said house, conceiving that he had a legal right to sell in the same house under the said Licence for the remainder of the year, as such has been a common usage. He therefore prays a remission of the said fine; and the said Court having stated their belief that the facts as represented by the petition are true, and having recommended him to Executive clemency, the said fine is hereby remitted.

By the Petition of William Floy of Worcester County, it appears, that he was fined by the County Court of said County at a November Term 1825, the sum of $ for retailing spirituous liquors contrary to Law. The Petitioner represents, that at the time he committed the said offence he was entirely deprived of the use of his hands; that he had no property, that he had a wife and two small children who were suffering with him the most extreme want, and that he was advised by many of his neighbors in order to prevent starvation. He therefore prays a remission of the said fine; and the said Court having recommended the petitioner to the clemency of the Executive, the said fine is hereby remitted.
