By the Petition of Susan Bryan of Baltimore City, accompanied by a transcript from the Record of Baltimore City Court; it appears, that she has been fined by the said Court, at June Term last; the sum of sixteen dollars for selling liquor without Licence. The Petitioner states, that she is a small helpless childless, who depends wholly upon her husband for food, that her husband has absconded and left his family in the most indigent circumstances; that since that time she has kept a small boarding house for the workmen of a neighbouring factory; that she was in the habit of keeping whiskey in her house for her boarders, and that she was so unfortunate as to sell a small quantity to a person whom she supposed to be her friend, but whom she afterwards found to be her most bitter enemy; that if the Law is left to take its course she will be incarcerated, as she has no manner of means to pay the fine so imposed, for her ignorant breach of the Law. She therefore prays a remission of the said fine. And the Court having recommended a compliance with her prayer, we do hereby remit the same.

By the Petition of James Madden of Harford County, it is represented that he was fined by the County Court of said County, at Michael Term last, ten dollars for an assault and Battery on a certain Walter Cunningham. That the said assault was committed under circumstances such as would have been excusable in any case where an assault could be excused; that no blows were used, at all; that he is extremely poor, with a very aged Mother and several helpless Siblings, all looking to him for support; he therefore prays that the said fine be remitted. And several respectable Citizens of the said County, having stated, that the said James Madden, is a harmless, in-offensive man and a fit subject for the humane interference of the Executive, we do hereby remit the said fine.
