

Court, it appears that the said Wm Atkinson was fined by the said Court, at October Term Instant the sum of thirty dollars for an assault and battery on Joseph Mayo. The Petitioner states that when the attack was made he was under considerable excitement and that he has since made every reparation that laid in his power, which Mr Mayo will testify. That he has a large family dependant, (in part) upon him for support, and is entirely unable to answer the amount of the said fine; and in such circumstances he solicits the clemency of the Government. And the said Joseph Mayo and sundry other respectable Citizens of the said City having recommended the said Atkinson's case to the attention of the Executive, we do hereby remit the said fine.
